COMMENTS: Candidate submitted waiver request via fedex and states that she has never been late or failed to file her campaign reports as required. Due to the complexity of this campaign she decided to hire someone to help. She said the first two reports were due she verified they were filed accordingly so she did not double check subsequent reports. When she received the first notice in February she contacted her report preparer and she was assured that the reports were filed. When she received the 2nd notice she contacted the staff in Ethics Administration and found out that the reports were not filed. She said she understands it is her responsibility but unfortunately she took someone's word that they had been done. She said there were no outside campaign contributions or expenses other than bank fees
